Introduction

This End-User License Agreement ("Agreement") is a legal agreement between you (either an individual or a company) and Hexivox, for the commercial use of the HexiBot WordPress Plugin ("the Software").

1. Grant of License

Hexivox grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to install and use the Software for commercial purposes under the following conditions:

- You may use the Software on one production site per license.
- You may modify the Software to suit your needs.
- You may not redistribute or resell the Software or derivative works outside of your organization without written permission.
- You may not offer HexiBot as a hosted service (SaaS) or part of a hosted package without a separate extended license.

2. GPL Compatibility

This commercial license does not override the terms of the GNU General Public License v2.0 or later, under which the Software is also made available. You are free to use HexiBot under the GPL for personal or open-source projects. This commercial license is only required for:

- Commercial websites
- Business-critical use
- Access to premium support or updates
- Integration with closed-source systems
- SaaS, multisite, or white-label usage

3. Support & Updates

With an active commercial license, you are entitled to:

HexiBot Commercial License (EULA)

- Email-based priority support
- Plugin updates for 1 year from the date of purchase
- Access to any premium features added during that period

After 1 year, you may continue to use the plugin but will no longer receive updates or support unless the license is renewed.

4. Ownership

The Software is the intellectual property of Hexivox. This Agreement does not grant you any ownership rights to the Software, only a limited license to use it under specified conditions.

5. Termination

Your rights under this license will automatically terminate if you breach any part of it. Upon termination, you must stop using the Software and delete all copies in your possession.

6. Warranty Disclaimer

The Software is provided "as-is" without warranty of any kind. Hexivox is not liable for any damages resulting from the use or inability to use the Software.

7. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the United Kingdom, without regard to conflict of law principles.
